Congregational Open Forum: Discussions about the future of our ministry are ongoing. We have had several open forums to discuss the potential expansion of our staff, the impact that it will have on our ministry and how we can support that expansion of our ministry as well as get your feedback. A summary of the proposal will be sent out this week to those who were not able to participate in the forums.

The next step in the process will take place at our Yearly Budget Meeting on December 17th after church. At that meeting the voters of our congregation will discuss and approve the budget for the upcoming 2024 year. The proposal of our potential staff expansion will be discussed and a final decision will be determined at the budget meeting.

Thank you to all those that participated in these important forums. I wish God blessings on our upcoming discussions and ministry going forward as we seek His guidance on what best to do for our ministry.

Worship Encouragement: During this holiday season we have several special opportunities to gather together as a family of believers and reflect on the wonderful reason for the season: the birth of our Savior Jesus.
